BOY COPS WILL BE FEATURE OF NEW YORK'S POLICE PARADE

POLICE COM, WOODS AND NEW YORK BOY COPS

New York, April 10—One of the remarkable developments in New York is the east side boy police force. This band of youngsters has been a wonderful aid to the police in the congested sections of the city. On more than one occasion one of the boys has tipped off Police Commissioner Arthur H. Woods on some pickpocket or greater criminal. Several wealthy New York men have taken a deep interest in this branch of the metropolical police service and have bought uniforms for the youngsters. The police parade will take piace earlier this year and will march downtown instead of uptown. The parade will be held on April 24. The early date for the display is because of the possibility that Mayor Mitchel may be out of town on May 1, the usual day for holding it. Besides the boys there will be 7,000 iniffermed men in line.
